Mother and Child by Eugene Field

O mother-my love, if you'll give me your hand
And go where I ask you to wander
I will lead you away to a beautiful land
The Dreamland that's waiting out yonder
We'll meet our fallen loved ones out there
Where moonlight and starlight are streaming
And the flowers and the birds are filling the air
With the fragrance and music of dreaming
There'll be no naughty sons giving you stress
No questions or cares to perplex you
There'll be no little bruises or bumps to caress
Nor patching of stockings to vex you
For I'll rock you away on a silver-dew stream
And sing you asleep when you're done
And everyone shall hear of a beautiful lady
Who filled all around her with laughter and fun
And when I am tired I'll nestle my head
In your memory which soothed me so often
And the wide-awake stars shall sing in my stead
A song which our dreaming shall soften
So, Mother my love, let me take your dear hand
And away through the starlight we'll wander
Away through the mist to the beautiful land
The dreamland that's waiting out yonder

Thank you
